GIBBS GIDEN LOCHER TURNER SENET & WITTBRODT LLP

THE FIRM

What the team is known for Wide-ranging experience assisting clients during all stages of the construction process. Celebrated for its notable construction litigation practice, which includes representation at the state and federal levels and before administrative agencies.

Strengths (Quotes mainly from clients)

"I have worked with a few other firms and none can approach Gibbs Giden when it comes to construction litigation."

"I have always been impressed by the firm's commitment to reaching common goals and attention to detail. Their knowledge of our industry is a key element in their excellent performance."

Work highlights Brought damages claims on behalf of Lydig Construction against subcontractor Martinez Steel. The case involved the expansion of the Adelanto Detention Center.

Defended FH Paschen against contract overpayment claims made by the Los Angeles Unified Schools District (LAUSD), bringing counterclaims centered on unpaid contract balances.

NOTABLE PRACTITIONERS

Glenn Turner is described as an "excellent advocate in adversarial situations." Clients report that he offers deep experience in litigating construction disputes, stating that he "is able to see the big picture when reviewing complicated issues, and offers well-thought-out strategies."

Barbara Gadbois is particularly commended by market commentators for her skill in drafting contracts and her thorough knowledge of the public sector construction market. Clients also highlight her ability to "very much consider disputes in terms of the cost to resolve them."

Marion Hack is noted for her broad-based construction practice, which includes both advisory work and representing clients in multimillion dollar claim disputes. One client remarks that she "has a good understanding of our business and is always making sure we are protected."
