Professional Experience

Christopher L. Mass is a highly accomplished litigation trial attorney and general counsel. Mr. Mass has twenty nine years of experience in construction, real estate, homeowner association, commercial, insurance, and general civil litigation. Mr. Mass represents businesses and individual clients in civil litigation involving construction defects, boundary disputes, quiet title actions, partnership disputes and premises liability actions. He assists clients with the preparation of prime construction and subcontract agreements and handles dispute resolution through mediations and arbitrations. Mr. Mass also works with contractors and owners in the management of high-end residential and commercial development projects. He prosecutes and defends cases in both State and Federal courts.
