Professional Experience

R. Sterling Henderson is an associate practicing in the Los Angeles office and also licensed in the states of Alaska and Washington. He represents a variety of corporate and individual clients, including business and property owners, general contractors, subcontractors, and material suppliers, in a wide range of complex business, commercial, and construction negotiations and disputes. Mr. Henderson specializes in the prosecution and defense of litigation matters involving claims for breach of contract and construction-related claims, including construction delay, mechanics liens, payment and performance bonds, and judgment enforcement proceedings. He is also experienced in the defense of civil and administrative malpractice actions and insurance matters, and has advised on several real estate and commercial transactions. Prior to joining Gibbs Giden, Mr. Henderson specialized in the defense of medical malpractice and general liability actions.
