

Sales of Goods & Secured Transactions

Gibbs Giden regularly assists manufacturers, distributors and retailers with a vast array of commercial law issues involving the sale of goods, including: drafting standard terms and conditions for the sale or purchase of goods; advising clients regarding troublesome contract terms and ensuring proper contract administration. The firm also assists clients with secured transactions to secure contractual duties and other obligations.